

A Leap across the Sea

A new collaboration entwining story, shadow and song by Debbie Guneratne and Wendy Dacre

Born from fire and carried by the wind to lift a curse, he was given invincibility, immortality and super powers, but was cursed to forget them.

*He tried to eat the sun, he carried a mountain, and leapt across the sea in search of a princess.
He is monkey hero Hanuman!*

*"As long as mountain ranges stand And rivers flow upon the earth
So long will this Ramayana Survive upon the lips of men."*

A Leap across the Sea

shadow theatre performance - 40 mins available for audiences of up to 60 5-7 year olds

Also available:

Ten heads - a fire - and a wish for audiences of up to 60 7 - 11 yr olds + workshops

Technical requirements: A get-in time of at least 1hr is needed for set-up. Shadow theatre requires as good a blackout as possible to be effective - please make sure the space is suitable. For the screen we need a space 3m wide, 2m deep, 2m high with one electric socket nearby.

booking enquiries :Debbie Guneratne 07979534301 www.debbieguneratne.co.uk

more on Wendy's shadows at www.raventaes.co.uk

